By tube

Canary Wharf is the nearest tube station and is on the Jubilee Line. The station is a short walk from Heron Quays DLR station from where you can get a train to Crossharbour (see below).

By Dockland Light Railway

Crossharbour is the nearest DLR stop. The station is a short walk from our offices in Greenwich View Place. Alight at Crossharbour station and exit the station, using the stairway, turning left on to Pepper Street. Continue by foot crossing over Millwall Inner Dock. Turn left, following the footpath along the edge of the river until you reach 5 Greenwich View Place. The main entrance can be reached from the road side of Greenwich View Place.

Car parking

Parking is extremely limited – a space may be available by prior arrangement. We would recommend using public transport.

From the A13 (Westbound)

Take centre lane and cross Canning Town Flyover (A13). Pass through the East India Dock Road Tunnel (signposted Isle of Dogs/Canary Wharf). Branch left (signposted Isle of Dogs), then at the roundabout take the second exit on to the A1261 (Aspen Way). Turn left on to Westferry Way (A1206). Continue over the first roundabout then at the next roundabout, take the second exit on to Marsh Wall South Quay. Turn right on to Millharbour. Continue to the roundabout and take the second exit on to Greenwich View Place. No 5 can be found at the end of the road, on the left hand side.
